

Project class

You will be proposing, preparing and presenting a project.

You will be working on this for quite a while so choose your topic wisely.

What do you want to learn?

Don't choose something you already know, that will be boring.

Proposal

The general subject _____

Specific subject _____

Why you want to study this? (250 words)

What you already know about this (250 words)

Proposal

How will you gather information (research)?

How will you present information?

What question will you answer with your research?

How will your discoveries make the world a better place?