

English – Due Sunday 6PM

We have spent the week discussing and participating in remembering. I was really touched by the memories of loved ones you all shared over lunch. This assignment is about memory. Please send everything in one google doc.

1- Watch memory video

- What are the three critical components to memory?
- What are the 3 processes to learning?
- What are some distractions to attention?
- Do you feel like you have good memory? Give an example.

2- Read

Forgetting You (Fire Again)

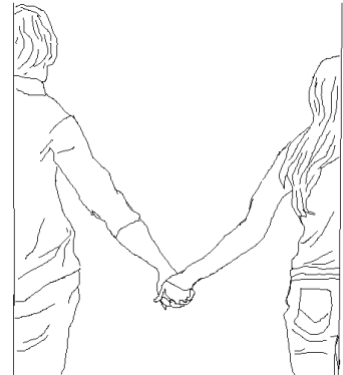

I am already forgetting you,
And that you once were here.
I struggle to recall your smile
Or the salt taste of my tears.
You do not deserve your place
Within the creases of my mind.
So I let you slip away from me
Into the depths of far behind.
Be gone you twisted memory
Of a shadow of a flame.
I must be left in darkness
Before I can see fire again.

- TFM the poem
- What is “fire” in the poem?

3- Watch video
